

Spirits in Time:

Person, Action, and Culture in Leonardo Polo's Ethics

September 29, 2014
IESE Business School
(Madrid, Spain)

Organized by:

The Leonardo Polo Institute of Philosophy
The Chair of Ethics of the IESE Business
School (Madrid, Spain)
The Markets, Culture and Ethics Research
Centre of the Pontifical University of the Holy Cross (Rome, Italy)

Spirits in Time is an International Conference that will take place in English, and seeks to gather English speaking scholars from throughout the world to explore the implications of Polo's anthropology and ethics in the varied fields of human action, culture, and history.

Main Speakers:

Prof. Juan Fernando Sellés
(University of Navarre)

Prof. José Ignacio Murillo
(University of Navarre)

Prof. Paul Dumol
(University of Asia and the Pacific)

Others presenting papers include, Ignacio Falgueras (University of Málaga), Antoine Suarez (Center for Quantum Philosophy, Zurich), Domènec Melé (IESE, Barcelona), Juan Andrés Mercado (Pontifical University of the Holy Cross, Rome), John Branya (Strathmore University, Nairobi), George Mendz (University of Notre Dame, Australia), Daniel Castañeda (Panamerican University, Mexico), Juan José Sanguinetti (Pontifical University of the Holy Cross, Rome), Idoia Zorroza (University of Navarre), Mark Mannion (Leonardo Polo Institute of Philosophy, Chicago), Juan José Padiàl (University of Málaga).

The Registration Fee for Spirits in Time is US$ 40 and includes Conference materials and lunch at the IESE Business School.

For more information, visit www.leonardopoloinstitute.org/conference-2014

